"Procrastination is the thief of time, collar him" - is one of the most famous Charles Dickens' quotations. But not all people really understand it. That's why I am going to tell you about it.

First of all, procrastination is a process of postponing all your tasks. ~~You~~ It steals your time, as you do nothing about your work. We should "collar" the procrastination and stop the avoidance of the work, that needed to be done, as Charles Dickens advised.

I absolutely ~~agge~~ agree with him. I believe, that people shouldn't be idle and, for example, should not play time-wasting computer games, when you need to work or study. Learning is a big part of our everyday lives, so we should spend time on it. Do not hesitate to ask your teacher or parent, when you start to see the problem of procrastination in your life. They can help you make a plan of your day, week or month, so you are able to finish every task on time. For example, my friend was having problems with his time-management, because he was always playing computer games, when he should have been studying. His mother helped him with his schedule, and he started having better marks at school, got some free time to spend with his family and started a new hobby.

To sum up, I can say that <sup>it's important to beat the</sup> procrastination. ~~Once~~ Once you have done it - your life gets easier and happier.

"Procrastination is the thief of time, collar him!" <sup>which</sup> <sup>out of wise man's mouth</sup> wise words, ~~that~~ were spoken ~~by~~ a wise man, whose name is Charles Dickens. Do not worry if you did not get a meaning of this words, it will be explained in the following text.

As for me, I see the meaning of this words pretty straight, I think that they mean, ~~that~~ <sup>always</sup> postpone everything is a ~~pure~~ ~~that~~ if you postpone everything, then you are ~~waste of time~~ ~~wasting your time~~. That postponing everything is a pure idle

In my opinion author is absolutely right, you must get rid of the ~~habit~~ <sup>and don't hesitate about it</sup> of postponing everything ~~without hesitation~~. Because there is no need in this avoidance of your problems, they will anyway come to you after.

As an example I will tell you a story of my life.
I've had a lot of things to do in the summer, but I postponed every thing that I could have postoned and then I was in a situation, in which I would have needed not to sleep for ~~3~~ three days to do all of my stuff.

All in all we are all humans: we can be lazy, we can be sad, we can have zero motivation to do anything, but keep in mind, that every problem you postpone will come <sup>back</sup> to you twice as large as it was.
